Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to regulate the admission of appeals to Her Majesty in Council from certain judgments and orders in Provinces not subject to the General Regulations ; It is enacted as follows :—

If a party in a suit is desirous of preferring an appeal to Her Majesty in Council from any final judgment, decree, or order made on appeal or revision by the Court of highest Civil jurisdiction in any Province in British India not subject to the General Regulations, or from any such final judgment, decree, or order made in the exercise of original jurisdiction by the said Court, in any case in which the sum or matter at issue is above the amount or value of 10,000 Rupees, or in which such judgment, decree, or order shall involve, directly or indirectly, any claim, demand, or question to or respecting property amounting to or of the value of 10,000 Rupees, or from any other final judgment, decree, or order made either on appeal or otherwise as aforesaid, when the said Court shall declare that the case is a fit one for appeal to Her Majesty in Council, such Court shall admit such appeal subject to such rules and orders as shall be in force, or shall from time to time be made in that behalf by Her Majesty in Council in respect of such appeals from Her Majesty's High Courts of Judicature in British India.

Appeal from interlocutory judgments.

II. It shall further be lawful for such Court, at its discretion, upon the petition of any party who considers himself aggrieved by any preliminary or interlocutory judgment, decree, or order of such Court in any such proceeding as aforesaid (not being of Criminal jurisdiction), to grant permission to such party to appeal against the same to Her Majesty in Council, subject to such rules, regulations, and limitations, as shall be in force, or as shall from time to time be declared by Her Majesty respecting appeals from final judgments, decrees, and orders, of Her Majesty's said High Courts of Judicature.

IV. The Court, if applied to, may either order the judgment or determination appealed against to be enforced, taking sufficient security for the performance of such order or decree as Her Majesty in Council may make on the appeal; or it may direct, on similar security being found, that no order for enforcing the judgment or determination shall be issued pending the appeal, and that, if any such order has been issued, it shall, so far as it has not been executed, be suspended.

Appellant to find security for costs of appeal.

V. In either of the cases mentioned in the last preceding Section, the Court shall require the appellant to find security for the payment of such costs as it may think likely to be incurred by the appeal.

VIII. In default of such further security being found, if the original security was furnished by the appellant, the Court may issue an order for enforcing the judgment or determination appealed against as if no such original security had been given; and if the original security was furnished by the respondent, the Court, so far as may be practicable, shall compel him to deliver up the property forming the subject of appeal, which shall be disposed of in conformity with such of the rules in force as may be applicable to the particular case.

If additional security be not furnished.

IX. In every case of appeal under this Act the Court shall certify and transmit to Her Majesty in Council under the seal of the Court, two true and correct copies of all evidence, proceedings, judgments, decrees, and orders had or made in the case appealed, so far as the same have relation to the matters of appeal, together with a copy of the reasons given by such Court for or against the judgment or determination appealed against.

Proceedings in the suit appealed to be forwarded to Her Majesty in Council.

X. The expense of preparing the two aforesaid copies, and of translating into English so much of the original documents as may not be in that language, shall be defrayed by the party prosecuting the appeal.

Expense of copying and translating papers in appeals to be paid by Appellants.

XI. The Court shall cause the deposit by the appellant, within the time allowed for furnishing security for costs of appeal, of such a sum as shall be sufficient to cover the expense of making the two aforesaid copies, and when such deposit shall have been made, and not till then, shall declare the appeal admitted, and give notice thereof to the appellant and respondent respectively.

Court to require a deposit for such expense as a preliminary to admission of appeal.

XII. Either party, on application, may obtain one or more authenticated copies of any of the papers in the suit on paying the reasonable expenses incurred in preparing them.

Decrees of Her Majesty in Council how to be executed.

XV. Any party desirous of enforcing or obtaining execution of any such decree or order made in appeal as aforesaid, shall present a petition for that purpose to the Court which made the first decree or order appealed from, and the said petition shall be accompanied by a certified copy of the decree or order made in appeal, and sought to be enforced or executed.

Execution how to be obtained.

XVI. An appeal shall lie from any decree or order made by such last-mentioned Court relating to the enforcement or execution of any such decree or order made in appeal as aforesaid in the same manner and subject to the same laws, rules, and regulations as an appeal from an order or decree made upon a petition for the enforcement of execution of the decree or order first appealed from, would have been.

XVII. Nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to prevent the said Court of highest Civil jurisdiction from enforcing or obtaining execution of a decree or order made or passed by Her Majesty in Council, if Her Majesty in Council shall think fit to decree or order the said Court to enforce or execute the same.

THE following Bill was introduced into the Council of the Governor General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 14th January 1863, and was referred to a Select Committee with instructions to make their report thereon in two weeks:—

No. 1 OF 1863.

A Bill to give effect to certain provisions of a Treaty between His Excellency the Earl of Elgin and Kincardine, Viceroy and Governor-General of India, and His Majesty the King of Burmah.

Preamble.

WHEREAS a Treaty has been negotiated between His Excellency the Earl of Elgin and Kincardine, Viceroy and Governor-General of India, and His Majesty the King of Ava, and in the 4th and 8th Articles of the said Treaty it is stipulated and agreed as follows:—

Article 4th.—"When goods are imported into "Rangoon from any British or Foreign Territory, "and declared to be for export by the Irrawaddy "river to the Burmese Territory, the English "Ruler shall, provided bulk is not broken, and he "believes the manifest to be true, charge one per "cent on their value, and if he so desires shall "allow them to be conveyed under the charge "of an Officer until arrival at Maloon and "Menhla. The Tariff value of goods shall be "forwarded yearly to the Burmese Ruler. If such "goods are declared for export to other territories "and not for sale in the Burmese territories, the "Burmese Ruler shall, if he believes the manifest "to be true, not cause bulk to be broken, and such "goods shall be free of duty.

Article 8th.—"Should the British Ruler within "one year after the conclusion of this Treaty "abolish the duties now taken at Thayet Myo "and Tounghoo, the Burmese Ruler with a regard "to the benefit of the people of his country will, "if so inclined, after one, two, three, or four years "abolish the duties now taken at Maloon and "Tounghoo (in the Burmese Territory.)"

And whereas it is necessary to give effect to the stipulations and engagements aforesaid by an Act to regulate the Duties of Customs at the port of Rangoon and elsewhere in conformity to such stipulations and engagements; It is enacted as follows:—

Duty on goods imported into Rangoon from British or Foreign Territory limited to one per cent ad valorem.

I. When any goods are imported into Rangoon from any British or Foreign Territory whether under bond or otherwise, and declared by the importer thereof to be for export by the Irrawaddy river to the Burmese Territory for sale therein, or for export through such territory for sale in other territories, such goods may be entered at the Custom House at Rangoon for such export and sale, and thereupon a duty of customs of one per cent ad valorem and no more, shall be charged, provided that bulk of such goods is not broken, and the Officer in charge of the Custom House is satisfied of the truth of the entry of such goods in the Manifest of the Vessel wherein such goods are brought to Rangoon.

Conveyance of goods imported as above to Maloon and Menhla.

II. Whenever any goods are entered at the Custom House at Rangoon under the last preceding Section such goods may be conveyed to Maloon and Menhla under charge of an Officer to be appointed for the purpose and the Officer so appointed to the charge of such goods shall be held to be a public servant within the meaning of Section 186 of the Indian Penal Code.

Governor General may discontinue duties now taken at Thayet Myo and Tounghoo.

III. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council by a notification to be published in the Calcutta Gazette, to order the discontinuance of the duties now levied at Thayet Myo and Tounghoo, and subsequently, if he shall see fit, by a like notification to order that such duties shall be revived and re-imposed, and any order made and published under this Section shall have the force of law.

Commencement of Act.

IV. This Act shall take effect from the time when the ratifications of the said Treaty are exchanged.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

This Bill has been prepared to give legal effect to a provision in the recent Treaty with the King of Burmah, a copy of which accompanies this paper. A main object in the negotiation, was an improvement of the Commerciai relations between the Province of British Burmah and the Kingdom of Burmah, and it is probable that this will be in considerable measure attained through the instrumentality of the Treaty. The 4th Article which provides for a reduction of duty to one per cent. in the case of goods imported into Rangoon for export up the Irrawaddy to the Burmese Territories, and for sale there or other Territories, (as for instance in China), will necessitate a modification of the Laws for the regulation of Customs Duties. This modification might have been introduced into the Consolidated Customs Bill now before the Council, but as that measure is intended for general application, it has been thought better to deal with the present exceptional case by a separate Bill.

Article 8 which contemplates the abolition of the frontier duties now levied at Thyet Myoo and Tounghoo, also appears to require legislative provision, and a short Section is therefore added to authorize the Governor-General by notification to give effect to this part of the Treaty.

III. The Superintendent may proceed in the case notwithstanding a reference to the High Court, and may pass a decree contingent upon the opinion of the High Court on the point referred; but no execution shall be issued in any case in which a reference shall be made to the High Court until the receipt of the order of that Court.

XI. In all suits heard and determined by the Superintendent in which the amount or value of the suit shall exceed Rupees, 5,000, an appeal shall lie to the said High Court, subject to the rules contained in the Code of Civil Procedure regarding regular appeals.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

The Bengal Government having, on the 22nd April last, represented to the Governor General in Council that no appeal was allowed from the decisions of the Superintendent of Darjeeling in Civil cases, and that it was desirable that the Judicial Administration of that Settlement should be placed under the Sudder Court, the Government of India in their reply dated the 22nd May entered into the consideration of the best mode of giving effect to the main object of the Bengal Government without unnecessarily adding to the business of the Highest Court of Appeal. It was stated to be the opinion of the Government of India that the jurisdiction of the Sudder Court, on its Civil side, should be confined as much as possible to settling disputed points of law and practice, or usage having the force of law, leaving the Court, as a rule, to exercise its appellate jurisdiction, in respect of questions of fact, in those cases only in which the amount or value of the property in dispute was comparatively large; and it was suggested that the administration of Civil Justice in Darjeeling "might be placed on a proper and satisfactory footing, if the Superintendent were vested with a final jurisdiction on points of both law and fact in all cases of the nature of those described in Section III, Act XLII of 1860, (the Small Cause Court Act), with power to grant a new trial subject to the provisions contained in Section XIII of that Act, and of stating a case to the Sudder Court under Sections XIV to XIX; and if in all other suits not exceeding Rupees 5,000 in amount or value, a regular appeal were allowed from the decision of the Superintendent to the Judge of Dinagepore, who on the Criminal side of his Court tries commitments of the Superintendent and hears appeals from his orders as Magistrate; and if in the regular appeals so decided by the Judge a special appeal were allowed from his decisions to the Sudder Court at Calcutta under the rules for the admission and decision of special appeals contained in the Code of Civil Procedure. In suits exceeding Rupee 5,000 in amount or value, the rule obtaining in the Regulation Districts might be followed of allowing a regular appeal from the decision of the Superintendent to the Calcutta Sudder Court."

It was also stated to be the opinion of the Governor General in Council that, simultaneously with the introduction of these measures, the Code of Civil Procedure, with any necessary modifications, might be extended to Darjeeling.

The Secretary of State in a Despatch dated the 14th August expressed his concurrence with the Government of India, but intimated his opinion that legislation to extend the jurisdiction of the High Court (the establishment of which he supposed then to have taken place) should be by the Council of the Governor General.

The Bengal Government having since transmitted a draft Bill drawn in conformity to the views of the Government of India, this Bill, with a few modifications, is now submitted to the Council. The correspondence to which reference has been made will accompany this paper.

It is intended that the Code of Civil Procedure shall be extended to Darjeeling, so as to come into operation contemporaneously with this Bill when passed into a law.

ACT No. II OF 1863.

An Act to regulate the admission of Appeals to Her Majesty in Council from certain Judgments and Orders in Provinces not subject to the General Regulations.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to regulate the admission of appeals to Her Majesty in Council from certain judgments and orders in Provinces not subject to the General Regulations ; It is enacted as follows :—

Admission of appeal.

I. If a party in a suit is desirous of preferring an appeal to Her Majesty in Council from any final judgment, decree, or order made on appeal or revision by the Court of highest Civil jurisdiction in any Province in British India not subject to the General Regulations, or from any such final judgment, decree, or order made in the exercise of original jurisdiction by the said Court, in any case in which the sum or matter at issue is above the amount or value of 10,000 Rupees, or in which such judgment, decree, or order shall involve, directly or indirectly, any claim, demand, or question to or respecting property amounting to or of the value of 10,000 Rupees, or from any other final judgment, decree, or order made either on appeal or otherwise as aforesaid, when the said Court shall declare that the case is a fit one for appeal to Her Majesty in Council, such Court shall admit such appeal subject to such rules and orders as shall be in force, or shall from time to time be made in that behalf by Her Majesty in Council in respect of such appeals from Her Majesty's High Courts of Judicature in British India.

Appeal from interlocutory judgments.

II. It shall further be lawful for such Court, at its discretion, upon the petition of any party who considers himself aggrieved by any preliminary or interlocutory judgment, decree, or order of such Court in any such proceeding as aforesaid (not being of Criminal jurisdiction), to grant permission to such party to appeal against the same to Her Majesty in Council, subject to such rules, regulations, and limitations, as shall be in force, or as shall from time to time be declared by Her Majesty respecting appeals from final judgments, decrees, and orders, of Her Majesty's said High Courts of Judicature.

Notice of appeal to the other party.

III. On the admission or permission of the appeal by the Court as hereinbefore provided, the Court shall forthwith cause notice to be given to the other party, that the appellant has preferred an appeal to Her Majesty in Council.

Court may either enforce judgment taking security, or suspend execution pending appeal.

IV. The Court, if applied to, may either order the judgment or determination appealed against to be enforced, taking sufficient security for the performance of such order or decree as Her Majesty in Council may make on the appeal; or it may direct, on similar security being found, that no order for enforcing the judgment or determination shall be issued pending the appeal, and that, if any such order has been issued, it shall, so far as it has not been executed, be suspended.

Appellant to find security for costs of appeal.

V. In either of the cases mentioned in the last preceding Section, the Court shall require the appellant to find security for the payment of such costs as it may think likely to be incurred by the appeal.

Time for presentation of petition of appeal.

VI. If a party who is desirous of preferring an appeal to Her Majesty in Council in any of the cases mentioned in Section I or Section II of this Act, shall require the assistance of the said Court for obtaining security from the other party for staying execution of the judgment, decree, or order, that has been passed, or for any other purpose, he shall present his petition to the said Court within six calendar months from the date of the judgment, decree, or order appealed against.

If security be found inadequate, Court may require it to be increased.

VII. If at any time pending an appeal under this Act, the security taken from either party appears inadequate, whether from the increase or improvement of the property forming the subject of appeal, or from the insufficiency of the securities, the Court before which the appeal is pending may, on the application of the other party, require further security.

VIII. In default of such further security being found, if the original security was furnished by the appellant, the Court may issue an order for enforcing the judgment or determination appealed against as if no such original security had been given; and if the original security was furnished by the respondent, the Court, so far as may be practicable, shall compel him to deliver up the property forming the subject of appeal, which shall be disposed of in conformity with such of the rules in force as may be applicable to the particular case.

If additional security be not furnished.

IX. In every case of appeal under this Act the Court shall certify and transmit to Her Majesty in Council under the seal of the Court, two true and correct copies of all evidence, proceedings, judgments, decrees, and orders had or made in the case appealed, so far as the same have relation to the matters of appeal, together with a copy of the reasons given by such Court for or against the judgment or determination appealed against.

Proceedings in the suit appealed to be forwarded to Her Majesty in Council.

X. The expense of preparing the two aforesaid copies, and of translating into English so much of the original documents as may not be in that language, shall be defrayed by the party prosecuting the appeal.

Expense of copying and translating papers in appeals to be paid by Appellants.

XI. The Court shall cause the deposit by the appellant, within the time allowed for furnishing security for costs of appeal, of such a sum as shall be sufficient to cover the expense of making the two aforesaid copies, and when such deposit shall have been made, and not till then, shall declare the appeal admitted, and give notice thereof to the appellant and respondent respectively.

Court to require a deposit for such expense as a preliminary to admission of appeal.

XII. Either party, on application, may obtain one or more authenticated copies of any of the papers in the suit on paying the reasonable expenses incurred in preparing them.

Either party, on paying for the same, may obtain copy of any paper.

XIII. Either party, in like manner, may obtain an authenticated copy of any local regulation or law which he may require in the appeal.

And of any local regulation or law.

XIV. The orders or decrees of Her Majesty in Council, when duly certified, shall be enforced and executed, under the directions of the said Court, by the Judge or Officer by whom the suit was originally tried, in the manner and according to the rules and laws applicable to the execution and enforcement of original orders or decrees made by such Judge or Officer.

Decrees of Her Majesty in Council how to be executed.

XV. Any party desirous of enforcing or obtaining execution of any such decree or order made in appeal as aforesaid, shall present a petition for that purpose to the Court which made the first decree or order appealed from, and the said petition shall be accompanied by a certified copy of the decree or order made in appeal, and sought to be enforced or executed.

Execution how to be obtained.

XVI. An appeal shall lie from any decree or order made by such last-mentioned Court relating to the enforcement or execution of any such decree or order made in appeal as aforesaid in the same manner and subject to the same laws, rules, and regulations as an appeal from an order or decree made upon a petition for the enforcement of execution of the decree or order first appealed from, would have been.

Appeal from order of enforcement.

XVII. Nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to prevent the said Court of highest Civil jurisdiction from enforcing or obtaining execution of a decree or order made or passed by Her Majesty in Council, if Her Majesty in Council shall think fit to decree or order the said Court to enforce or execute the same.

Court of highest Civil jurisdiction may execute decrees by order of Her Majesty in Council.

XVIII. Nothing in this Act contained, shall be understood to bar the full and unqualified exercise of Her Majesty's pleasure upon all appeals to Her, either in rejecting any she may consider inadmissible, or in receiving any she may judge admissible.

Saving of Her Majesty's power as to receiving or rejecting appeals.

XIX. The words "British India" denote the Territories which are or may become vested in Her Majesty by the Statute 21 and 22 Vic., c. 106, entitled "An Act for the better Government of India.

Interpretation of "British India."

And, subject as above, all proceedings under this Act between party and party shall be regulated by the Code of Civil Procedure.

No decree for divorce a mensâ et thoro to be made, but a judicial separation.

V. No decree shall hereafter be made for a divorce a mensâ et thoro, but in all cases in which a decree for divorce a mensâ et thoro might now be pronounced, the High Court may pronounce a decree for a judicial separation, which shall have the same force and the same consequences as a divorce a mensâ et thoro now has.

Sentence of judicial separation may be obtained by husband or wife.

VI. A sentence of judicial separation (which shall have the effect of a divorce a mensâ et thoro under the existing law, and such other legal effect as herein mentioned) may be obtained either by the husband or the wife, on the ground of adultery, or cruelty, or desertion without cause for two years or upwards.

In case of judicial separation the wife to be considered a Feme sole with respect to property she may acquire, &c.

VII. In every case of a judicial separation under this Act, the wife shall, from the date of the sentence, and whilst the separation shall continue, be considered as a Feme sole with respect to property of every description which she may acquire, or which come to or devolve upon her; and such property may be disposed of by her in all respects as a Feme sole, and on her decease the same shall in case she shall die intestate, go as the same would have gone if her husband had been then dead ; provided that, if any such wife should again cohabit with her husband, all such property as she may be entitled to when such cohabitation shall take place shall be held to her separate use, subject, however, to any agreement in writing made between herself and husband whilst separate.

And to be a Feme sole for purposes of contract and suing.

VIII. In every case of a judicial separation under this Act, the wife shall, whilst so separated, be considered as a Feme sole for the purposes of contract and wrongs and injuries, and suing and being sued in any Civil proceedings ; and her husband shall not be liable in respect of any engagement or contract she may have entered into, or for any wrongful act or omission by her, or for any costs she may incur as plaintiff or defendant ; provided that where, upon any such judicial separation, alimony has been decreed or ordered to be paid to the wife, and the same shall not be duly paid by the husband, he shall be liable for necessaries supplied for her use ; provided also that nothing shall prevent the wife from joining, at any time during such separation, in the exercise of any joint power given to herself and her husband.

Application for restitution of conjugal rights or judicial separation may be made by husband or wife by petition to Court, &c.

IX. Application for restitution of conjugal rights or for judicial separation on any one of the grounds aforesaid may be made by either husband or wife, by petition to the High Court, and the said High Court on being satisfied of the truth of the allegations contained in such application, and that there is no legal ground why the same should not be granted, may decree such restitution of conjugal rights or judicial separation accordingly, and where the application is by the wife, may make any order for alimony which shall be deemed just.

Wife deserted by her husband may apply to the High Court for protection.

X. A wife deserted by her husband may, at any time after such desertion, apply to the High Court, for an order to protect any money or property she may acquire by her lawful industry, and property which she may become possessed of after such desertion, against her husband or his creditors or any person claiming under him; and the said Court, if satisfied of the fact of such desertion, and that the same was without reasonable cause, and that the wife is maintaining herself by her own industry or property, may make and give to the wife an order protecting her earnings and property acquired since the commencement of such desertion from her husband and all creditors and persons claiming under him, and such earnings and property shall belong to the wife as if she were Feme sole. Provided that it shall be lawful for the husband, and any creditor or other person claiming under him, to apply to the Court by which such order was made, for the discharge thereof. Provided also, that if the husband or any creditor of or person claiming under the husband shall seize or continue to hold any property of the wife after notice of any such order, he shall be liable, at the suit of the wife (which she is hereby empowerd to bring), to restore the specific property, and also for a sum equal to double the value of the property, so seized or held after such notice as aforesaid. If any such order of protection be made, the wife shall during the continuance thereof be, and be deemed to have been during such desertion of her, in the like position in all respects, with regard to property and contracts, and suing and being sued, as she would be under this Act if she obtained a decree of judicial separation.

Decree of separation obtained during the absence of husband or wife may be reversed.

XI. Any husband or wife, upon the application of whose wife or husband, as the case may be, a decree of judicial separation has been pronounced, may, at any time thereafter, present a petition to the Court by which the decree was pronounced praying for a reversal of such decree on the ground that it was obtained in his or her absence, and that there was reasonable ground for the alleged desertion, where desertion was the ground of such decree; and the Court may, on being satisfied of the truth of the allegations of such petition, reverse the decree accordingly, but the reversal thereof shall not prejudice or affect the rights or remedies which any other person would have had in case such reversal had not been decreed, in respect of any debts, contracts, or acts of the wife incurred, entered into, or done between the times of the sentence of separation and of the reversal thereof.

On adultery of wife or incest, &c., of husband, petition for dissolution of marriage may be presented.

XII. It shall be lawful for any husband to present a petition to the High Court, praying that his marriage may be dissolved, on the ground that his wife has since the celebration thereof been guilty of adultery; and it shall be lawful for any wife to present a petition to the said Court, praying that her marriage may be dissolved on the ground that since the celebration thereof her husband has been guilty of incestuous adultery, or of marriage with another woman with adultery, or of rape, or of sodomy or bestiality, or of adultery coupled with such cruelty as without adultery would have entitled her to a divorce a mensâ et thoro, or of adultery coupled with desertion, without reasonable excuse, for two years or upwards; and every such petition shall state, as distinctly as the nature of the case permits, the facts on which the claim to have such marriage desolved is founded. Provided that, for the purposes of this Act, incestuous adultery shall be taken to mean adultery committed by a husband with a woman with whom, if his wife were dead, he could not lawfully contract marriage by reason of her being within the prohibited degrees of consanguinity or affinity; and marriage with another woman shall be taken to mean marriage of any person being married to any other person during the life of the former wife, whether the second marriage shall have taken place within the dominions of Her Majesty or elsewhere.

As to "incestuous adultery."

Adulterer to be a co-respondent.

XIII. Upon any such petition presented by a husband the petitioner shall make the alleged adulterer a co-respondent to the said petition, unless on special grounds, to be allowed by the Court, he shall be excused from so doing; and on every petition presented by a wife for dissolution of marriage, the Court, if it see fit, may direct that the person with whom the husband is alleged to have committed adultery be made a respondent.

Court to be satisfied of absence of collusion.

XIV. Upon any such petition for the dissolution of a marriage, it shall be the duty of the Court to satisfy itself, so far as it reasonably can, not only as to the facts alleged, but also whether or no the petitioner has been in any manner accessory to or conniving at the adultery, or has condoned the same, and shall also inquire into any counter-charge which may be made against the petitioner.

Dismissal of petition.

XV. In case the Court, on the evidence in relation to any such petition, shall not be satisfied that the alleged adultery has been committed, or shall find that the petitioner has, during the marriage, been accessory to or conniving at the adultery of the other party to the marriage, or has condoned, the adultery complained of, or that the petition is presented or prosecuted in collusion with either of the respondents, then and in any of the said cases the Court shall dismiss the said petition.

Power to Court to pronounce decree for dissolving marriage.

XVI. In case the Court shall be satisfied on the evidence that the case of the petitioner has been proved, and shall not find that the petitioner has been in any manner accessory to or conniving at the adultery of the other party to the marriage, or has condoned the adultery complained of, or that the petition is presented or prosecuted in collusion with either of the respondents, then the Court shall pronounce a decree declaring such marriage to be dissolved in the manner and subject to all the provisions and limitations in the next following Section of this Act made and declared. Provided always, that the Court shall not be bound to pronounce such decree if it shall find that the petitioner has during the marriage been guilty of adultery, or if the petitioner shall, in the opinion of the Court, have been guilty of unreasonable delay in presenting or prosecuting such petition, or of cruelty towards the other party to the marriage, or of having deserted or wilfully separated himself or herself from the other party before the adultery complained of, and without reasonable excuse, or of such wilful neglect or misconduct as has conduced to the adultery.

XVII. Every decree for a Divorce shall, in the first instance, be a Decree Nisi, to be made absolute till after the expiration of such time, not less than three months from the pronouncing thereof, as the Court shall by general or special order from time to time direct; and during that period any person shall be at liberty, in such manner as the Court shall by general or special order in that behalf from time to time direct, to show cause why the said decree should not be made absolute by reason of the same having been obtained by collusion or by reason of material facts not brought before the Court, and, on cause being so shown, the Court shall deal with the case by making the decree absolute, or by reversing the Decree Nisi or by requiring further inquiry, or otherwise as justice may require; and at any time during the progress of the cause or before the decree is made absolute, any person may give information to the Solicitor to Government at the place where the said Court is established of any matter material to the due decision of the case, who may thereupon take such steps as the Advocate-General at the said place may deem necessary or expedient; and if from any such information or otherwise the said Solicitor shall suspect that any parties to the suit are or have been acting in collusion for the purpose of obtaining a Divorce contrary to the justice of the case, he may, under the direction of the Advocate-General, and by leave of the Court, intervene in the suit, alleging such case of collusion, and retain Counsel, and subpœna witnesses to prove it; and it shall be lawful for the Court to order the costs of such Counsel and witnesses and otherwise arising from such intervention, to be paid by the parties or such one or more of them as it shall see fit, including a wife if she have separate property; and in case the said Solicitor shall not thereby be fully satisfied his reasonable costs, he shall be entitled to charge and to be re-imbursed the difference as part of the expenses of his Office.

Husband may claim damages from adulterers.

XIX. Any husband may, either in a petition for dissolution of marriage or for judicial separation, or in a petition limited to such object only, claim damages from any person on the ground of his having committed adultery with the wife of such petitioner, and such petition shall be served on the alleged adulterer and the wife, unless the Court shall dispense with such service or direct some other service to be substituted; and the claim made by every such petition shall be heard and tried on the same principles, in the same manner, and subject to the same or the like rules and regulations as actions for criminal conversation may now be tried and decided in the High Court sitting as a Court of ordinary original Civil jurisdiction; and the damages to be recovered on any such petition shall be ascertained by the said Court, although the respondents or either of them may not appear; and after the decision has been given, the Court shall have power to direct in what manner such damages shall be paid or applied, and to direct that the whole or any part thereof shall be settled for the benefit of the children (if any) of the marriage, or as a provision for the maintenance of the wife.

Power given to Court to order adulterer to pay costs.

Court may order settlement of property for benefit of innocent party and children of marriage.

XXIV. In any case in which the Court shall pronounce a sentence of divorce or judicial separation for adultery of the wife, if it shall be made to appear to the Court that the wife is entitled to any property either in possession or reversion, it shall be lawful for the Court, if it shall think proper, to order such settlement as it shall think reasonable to be made of such property or any part thereof, for the benefit of the innocent party, and of the children of the marriage or either or any of them. Commencement of Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE object of this Bill is to place the Matrimonial Law administered by the High Courts, in the exercise of their original jurisdiction, on the same footing as the Matrimonial Law administered by the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes in England.

The 9th Section of the Act of Parliament for establishing High Courts of Judicature in India (24 and 25 Vic., Ch. 104) provides that the High Courts shall exercise such Matrimonial Jurisdiction as Her Majesty by Letters Patent shall grant and direct. Under the authority thus conferred by Parliament, the 35th Section of the Letters Patent, constituting the High Courts of Judicature, provides as follows:—

"And we do further ordain that the said High Court "of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal shall have "Jurisdiction in matters Matrimonial between our "subjects professing the Christian religion, and that "such Jurisdiction shall extend to the local limits "within which the Supreme Court now has Ecclesi- "astical Jurisdiction. Provided always that nothing "herein contained shall be held to interfere with "the exercise of any Jurisdiction in matters Matri- "monial by any Court not established by Royal "Charter within the said Presidency lawfully possess- "ed thereof."

In the Despatch of the Secretary of State transmitting the Letters Patent, the 33rd and 34th paragraphs are to the following effect:—

Letter from Secretary of State, Judicial, No. 24, dated 14th May 1862.

33. "Her Majesty's Government are desirous of "placing the Christian subjects of the Crown within "the Presidency in the same position under the High "Court, as to matters Matrimonial in general, as they "now are under the Supreme Court, and this they "believe to be effected by Clause 35 of the Charter. "But they consider it expedient that the High Court "should possess, in addition, the power of decreeing "divorce which the Supreme Court does not possess, "in other words, that the High Court should have "the same Jurisdiction as the Court for Divorce and "Matrimonial Causes in England, established in virtue "of the Act 20 and 21 Vic., C. 85 and in regard to "which further provisions were made by 22 and 23 "Vic, C. 61, and 23 and 24 Vic, C 144. The Act "of Parliament for establishing the High Courts, "however, does not purport to give to the Crown the "power of importing into the Charter all the provisions "of the Divorce Court Act, and some of them, the "Crown clearly could not so import, such, for instance, "as those which prescribe the period of re-marriage, "and those which exempt from punishment clergymen "refusing to re-marry adulterers. All these are, in "truth, matters for Indian legislation, and I request "that you will immediately take the subject into your "consideration, and introduce into your Council a Bill "for conferring upon the High Court, the Jurisdiction "and Powers of the Divorce Court in England, one of "the provisions of which should be to give an appeal "to the Privy Council in those cases in which the "Divorce Court Act gives an appeal to the House of "of Lords."

34. "The object of the provision at the end of "Clause 35 is to obviate any doubt that may possibly "arise as to whether, by vesting the High Court "with the powers of the Court for Divorce and Matri- "monial Causes in England, it was intended to take "away from the Courts within the division of the "Presidency, not established by Royal Charter, any "Jurisdiction which they might have in matters "matrimonial, as for instance in a suit for alimony "between Armenians or Native Chirtians. With any "such Jurisdiction it is not intended to interfere."

In addition to the Act of Parliament mentioned by the Secretary of State as regulating the Jurisdiction of the English Divorce Court the Statute 25 & 26 Vic. Ch. 81 has been passed in the year just expired (1862). The object of this Statute is to render perpetual 23 and 24 Vic Ch. 144 the duration of which had been originally limited to two years.

The Draft of a Bill has been prepared to give effect to the Secretary of State's instructions, but some variations from the English Statutes in respect of Procedure have been adopted.

With a view to uniformity in practice in the several branches of Jurisdiction, the Bill provides that the Procedure of the the Code of Civil Procedure shall be followed, instead of the Rules of Her Majesty's Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes in England. and it omits the provision in 20 and 21 Vic., Ch. 85 respecting the occasional trial of questions of fact by Juries.

In respect of fees, it has been considered that the Act XX of 1862, (lately continued by the Governor-General in Council for another year), renders special legislation unnecessary.

The power of intervening in suits, given by 23 and 24 Vic., Ch. 144, to the Attorney General and the Queen's Proctor is, in this Bill, given to the Advocate General and the Solicitor to Government.

There are also other variations of a minor and verbal character.

The Draft Bill having been submitted to the Judges of the several High Courts, with a request that they would favour the Government with their opinions on it, communications have been received, and will be laid before the Council, from the Judges at Calcutta and Bombay. In these letters there are several important suggestions, and the Honorable the Chief Justice of the High Court at Calcutta has intimated that he considers it doubtful whether decrees by the High Court under the proposed Act, dissolving the marriages of persons who have been married in England, would have legal effect there. The question is one of considerable difficulty as well as of great importance, and has been stated to the Secretary of State, with the view of obtaining the opinion of Her Majesty's Law Officers, and, if necessary, some legislative measure to remove all doubt.

The 14th January 1863.—Notification.—No. 25.—The following Rules regarding sale of waste lands are hereby published for general information, in amendment of the Rules published in the Supplement to the Punjab Gazette of 25th January 1862, which are hereby cancelled:—

RULES OF PROCEDURE.

For carrying out the orders of the Government of India, in the Home Department, contained in Resolution, dated 17th October 1861, regarding sale of Waste Lands, the property of Government.

I.—All waste lands, the property of Government, will be saleable by auction, unless specially reserved.

II.—Lands situated in the vicinity of towns, or, for any other reason, bearing an exceptional value, will be specially reserved, and will not be sold under these rules, without the express sanction of the local Government. A list of these lands will be hereafter published in the Punjab Gazette.

III.—All applications for waste lands shall be made in writing to the Deputy Commissioner of the District in which they are situated, or to one of his Assistants. The application should specify the locality of the land as far as may be practicable, the estimated area desired, and the name of the applicant; and it will be the duty of the Deputy Commissioner, or his Assistant, as the case may be, to afford, if desired, either verbally or in writing, to the applicant or his representative delivering the document, such information regarding the circumstances of the land as the records of his Office, or his own personal knowledge, may enable him to supply.

IV.—The area of a single grant is not ordinarily to exceed 3,000 acres. It will usually be optional with the applicant to choose such portion of the available waste as he may consider best to suit his purpose, but no parcel of land shall be sold in such a shape as shall, by its abstraction, seriously detract from the value of the remainder available land. Every lot shall be compact, and shall include no more than one tract of land in a ring fence; and when the land touches a public road, navigable river, or canal, the length of the road, river, or canal frontage shall not exceed one-half the depth of the lot.

V.—On receipt of the application, the Deputy Commissioner shall, within one month, cause the land applied for to be surveyed, and its boundaries demarcated, the estimated cost of the survey and demarcation being first deposited by the applicant.

VI.—If no valid objection to the proposed grant be apparent; and if the land is ordinary waste, the Deputy Commissioner will issue, simultaneously with the order for survey, a notification in the form marked A. This notification is to be published in the Punjab Government Gazette, and a translation of it in the Surkári Akhbar, copies of both English and Vernacular versions being suspended in the Deputy Commissioner's Office, and that of the Tehseeldar or Sub-Collector of the Pergunnah in which the land is situated. The intended sale is also to be proclaimed by beat of drum at both places, and in the villages to which the land adjoins, on three Court days, at intervals of ten days. If deemed requisite or advisable, the Deputy Commissioner will also adopt any other measures that may be practicable for bringing it to the knowledge of parties likely to be interested.

VII.—Simultaneously with the issue of the notification, the Deputy Commissioner will report the circumstance with all needful particulars to the Commissioner, whose duty it will be, should he deem any further information to be necessary, to call for it and adopt such measures as he may deem expedient previous to the expiration of the term of notification.

VIII.—During the term in question, the Deputy Commissioner, or one of his Assistants or Extra Assistants is required to inspect the land and estimate upon the spot the upset price; which price, however in the case of ordinary waste, is not to exceed 2½ Rupees per acre of the whole area. The applicant or applicants, or their representatives, should be invited, in every case, to accompany the Inspecting Officer; and in the event of their doing so the demarcation of boundaries shall be performed, as far as possible, in their presence.

IX.—On the expiration of the period named in the notification, if no valid objections have been raised to the sale, the Deputy Commissioner shall put the land up to auction, at the upset price, in the manner prescribed for sale of land by Collectors, awarding it to the highest bidder. It is to be understood that all claims or objections advanced have been previously disposed of; and on the sale being completed, and the purchaser paying down the estimated cost of survey and erection of substantial boundary pillars, a certificate of transfer, in the form marked B, is to be given him;—the proceedings of the Deputy Commissioner under these rules, if allowed thus far by the Commissioner, being final, and not liable to be over-ruled for any informality not attributable to act or default of the grantee. All sales will be public.

X.—In Districts which have undergone scientific survey, it is possible that the Surveyor's village maps may shew with precision the limits of the plot applied for; in which case it will suffice to supply the purchaser with a transcript of this. Such will, however, rarely be the case, and accordingly re-survey will, in almost all cases, be indispensable, both to determine and exhibit the precise area and boundaries, and to indicate the main features and characteristics of the various portions of the tract. It is not probable that in any District of the Punjab applications will be sufficiently numerous to justify or require the entertainment of special Establishments for this purpose; but as the Putwaries have almost everywhere been instructed in the use of the Plane-table, the Deputy Commissioner should always be able, by employing the most skilful of these under the guidance of the Qânungo and Tehseeldar, to have a tolerably correct map prepared,—for which the Putwari should be moderately remunerated. If the applicant should be dissatisfied with a map thus prepared, every effort should be made to procure the services of a more scientific Surveyor. If the land be purchased by any other person than the applicant, the estimated cost of survey deposited by the applicant shall be returned to him.

XI.—If, before the day of sale, a claim of proprietary or occupative right in any part of the land be preferred, the Deputy Commissioner shall investigate the claim, and, if satisfied that it is groundless, shall reject it and proceed with the sale. But if on investigation, and such claim should appear to be well grounded, the Deputy Commissioner should either reject the application for purchase of the land, or refer it for the orders of the Commissioner. In the former case the applicant may appeal to the Commissioner. The Commissioner may direct the Deputy Commissioner either to reject the application, or to proceed with the sale of the land either unreservedly on the conditions prescribed in Rule XII., or, if any claim to right of proprietorship, occupancy, or use in any part of the lands be established to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, with a special reservation of such right, or exclusion of the area in which such right exists.

XII.—On completion of the survey of the land the purchaser is to be required to pay at least ten per cent. of the price of the land, and any balance that may remain due of the actual cost of the survey, advertisement and sale; after which a Deed in English, in the form marked C, signed by the Secretary to Government, Punjab, is to be given to him. It will of course be optional with the purchaser to pay up the whole of the purchase money at once, but if he do not, a period of three months from the date of the Deed is to be allowed, during which interest shall not be charged. But from and after the expiry of this period, interest at ten per cent. shall begin to run. Provided that if the whole purchase money, principal and interest, be not paid within ten years from the date of sale, the land shall be liable to sale by order of the local Government, and during such period shall remain hypothecated as security for the amount. The amount of this interest shall be regarded and treated as the Revenue demand upon the land for the time being, and shall be realized in the same mode by the same periodical kists or instalments as are prescribed for the realization of the ordinary land revenue; accounts being adjusted by the Tehseeldar in the last month (April) of each year, and the instalments for the ensuing year being then determined and entered at the foot of the Pergunnah Touzee. All realizations shall, in the first instance, be credited to these instalments; any surplus receipts only being credited as payment of the principal.

XIII.—There is no prohibition against the same person applying for two or more lots of land, provided that each application comprises no more than the area prescribed in Rule IV.

XIV.—Every appropriated grant is to be reported to Government so soon as the Certificate B has been given to the applicant; and a Deed is to be submitted, with the report, through the usual channels, for the Secretary's signature. A Register of all grants thus completed shall be kept by the Deputy Commissioner in the form noted below; and all Maps and other proceedings appertaining to each shall be numbered and filed in the order entered therein, and no transfer of a grant will be recognized by the Civil or Revenue Courts unless registered in due form and entered in this Register.

The land will remain hypothecated as security for the discharge of the principal and interest of the purchase money, and be liable to sale if the said amount be not discharged within the stipulated period.

II.—Arrears of interest shall be treated in the same manner as arrears of Land Revenue, and be subject to the same measures of realization.

Government, however, reserves to itself the right to prescribe by enactment such modified rules on this point as may hereafter appear expedient.

X.—The prescriptive right of other proprietors in streams running through, or bounding, the Estate will be maintained for purposes of irrigation or navigation used for the transport of timber or other property, and for other purposes of general utility. The Government reserves to itself the right which it everywhere possesses over all such streams, whether for purposes of irrigation or navigation; and, whenever it sees fit, can assume the control of the waters and distribute them in such a way and on such conditions as may seem most conducive to the public good.

Circular Order of the Board of Revenue, L. P.

No. 63½.

Dated 23rd December 1862.

TO ALL COMMISSIONERS AND DISTRICT REVENUE OFFICERS.

Land Revenue.

THE following should be substituted for Supplementary Rule L. to Rule 19 of the Board's Circular Order No. 63, dated 14th October 1862 :—

W. J. ALLEN, A. GROTE, and E. T. TREVOR, ESQRS.

"A Table is annexed for use in commuting existing Soonderbuns, Assam, and Cachar Grants to rent-free tenures. The Grants are treated as if they were permanently-settled at the highest specified annual rate payable under the stipulations of the lease under which they are given, viz., in the Soonderbuns at two annas a beegah, and in Assam and Cachar at six annas an acre. The Table shews the actual sum payable in any year of the currency of a Grant in order to redeem all future payments, and to convert the Grant into an absolutely rent-free tenure. The sum payable will be the same, whether the commutation be made early or late in any given year of the currency of a lease, that is, assuming a lease to have been given on the 1st of March, the amount payable for redemption will be the same, whether the commutation be made on the 1st of March of any given year or on the 28th of the following February, or at any intermediate date. It will be at the option of Grantees to pay the full amount due on the commutation at once, or in instalments under the conditions given in Rule 15 and Supplementary Rule I. The permission to redeem accorded by these Rules does not in any way affect the obligation of the Grantees to fulfil, up to the date of commutation, the conditions on which grants of land in the Soonderbuns or in Assam and Cachar have been made under the old Rules. Before a Grantee can establish a right to redeem future payments of revenue of the whole or any part of his Grant, he is bound to shew that he has complied with the conditions on which the Grant was made, by having cleared the required proportion of the lands comprised in it. Local Officers are therefore not authorized to allow commutations, except in cases in which it has been ascertained that the full area required had been cleared up to the period when the lot was last subject to inspection under the terms of the lease. The Board are however vested with a discretion to shew consideration to Grantees who may have been prevented from clearing their lots by circumstances beyond their control, or by difficulties which could not have been foreseen; and they will be prepared, on the reports of local Officers, to waive the strict fulfilment of the conditions of the Grant where the circumstances are such as would have induced them, under the old Rules, to abstain from enforcing the penalty either by total or by partial resumption."

2. The following alteration will be made in the form of Notice marked C., referred to in Supplementary Rule D., and annexed to Circular Order 63 :—

For "having been applied for by——— under the Notification," &c., read "having been applied for under the Notification," &c. The name of the applicant will not be given in these Notices.

By Order of the Board of Revenue, L. P.

H. L. DAMPIER,
Secretary.

NOTE.—The Circular Order should be bound up next to No. 63, and references should be made to it in manuscript against Supplementary Rule L., and Form of Notice C. of Circular Order No. 63.
